

12 DAY GREAT IRISH ADVENTURE

SAMPLE ITINERARY

IMPORTANT: Please note that this itinerary is a framework for the tour. This means that:

1. The overnights are pretty much set in stone and then we base each tour on the items in the list below.
2. Your guide will discuss the options with you throughout the tour and plan from there. This gives us flexibility to adapt each tour to suit you and fit in with the weather conditions.
3. This of course means that some things may not be included in your tour, but if there is something that you particularly want to do or see on your tour, mention it to your guide and he or she will see if it can be included.

DAY 5

Sligo to Connemara

Today we visit one of Ireland's national museums, one of the world's holiest mountains and Ireland's only fjord. Today's options:

- Visit the excellent Museum of Country Life in Castlebar (free entry)
- Croagh Patrick - St Patrick's Reek - from where the snakes were banished. Take a stroll up this epic pilgrimage mountain and lose a sin with every step

Average Duration: Depends on time and weather, average 1 hour

Terrain: Rough mountain walk on well defined trail. Difficult footing. Steep and uphill at times

- Picnic on the slopes and look down upon the panorama of Clew Bay
- Head south into the Connemara region, famous for its wild and rugged landscape and stunning scenery
- Leenane- Quick pints in 'The Field Pub', named after the movie which was filmed here, at the head of Killary Harbour
- Killary Harbour - drive along the shore of Ireland's only fjord
- Option to visit a sheep farm today, if you don't visit today your guide will take you later in the tour
- Kylemore Abbey - Photo stop at one of Ireland's most beautiful buildings

(Average driving time: 3 hours 30 minutes)

ACCOMMODATION:

Overnight in Abbeyglen Castle Hotel, Connemara, Co. Galway

DAY 6

Connemara to Clare

A very flexible day on tour starting with a drive around Galway Bay. Later we venture into Galway City and south through County Clare.

- Visit the restored Aughnanure Castle, ancestral home of the 'Ferocious' O'Flaherty clan for the excellent guided tour (castle tour included in tour price)

ACCOMMODATION:

Overnight in The Dingle Bay Hotel in the heart of Dingle Town – a town of 2500 people and 54 pubs

DAY 8

Dingle Day

A great day spent enjoying Dingle town and the Peninsula. You can do as much or little as you like on day eight as we spend two nights here in the town. At some stage while we are in Dingle we normally take the group out on a tour of the Peninsula to the most westerly point in Ireland that you can drive to and a selection of the stops we see along the way are below. Plus, we can also organise other options for you if you would like something more active, or relaxing.

The Dingle Peninsula Tour out to Sleah Head:

Head out along the Sleah Head Drive past Ventry beach. Stop at ancient Beehive Huts – once the dwellings of 5th Century Monks. Enjoy a scenic stop at Europe's most westerly point with views over the Basket Islands. Walk down to Coumeenoole Beach (Film set of Ryan's Daughter). Photo stop at Smerwick Head – views back up the Dingle Peninsula and of Mount Brandon. Visit Louis Mulcahy Pottery or a local crystal cutter and see some of Ireland's most skilled craftspeople at work.

Dingle Activity Options:

- Go horse riding on Ventry Strand (Price: €35pp)
- Dingle Distillery (€15pp), tasting included (15/20 minute walk)
- Boat trip to see Fungie the Dolphin (Price: €20pp)
- Kayaking in Dingle Bay – maybe even with Fungie the Dolphin (price €50pp)
- Take out a traditional Naomh Og boat and row with some of Dingle's finest (Price: €25pp)
- Golf – Play a round on The Dingle Golf Links (fees would apply and there may be a transfer fee one way by taxi if the guide and vehicle are busy with other group members)
- Visit Louis Mulcahy Pottery or a local crystal cutter and see some of Ireland's most skilful craftsmen at work.

Chill out in Dingle:

- Go for a walk along the Dingle Way from the centre of Dingle town up into the hills
- Wander the picturesque town of Dingle, with its brightly coloured street, numerous shops, excellent galleries, numerous local craftspeople, restaurants and of course pubs

(Average driving time: 1 hour 30 minutes)

ACCOMMODATION:

Overnight in The Dingle Bay Hotel in the heart of Dingle Town – a town of 2500 people and 54 pubs

DAY 9

Dingle to Portmagee

It's time to say goodbye to Dingle and head for the Ring of Kerry. Today we weave our way around Dingle Bay, exchanging the gently rolling mountains of the Dingle Peninsula for the majesty of McGillicuddy's Reeks - the highest mountains in Ireland. We join the Ring half way through the day, when all the coaches have gone, so we will have it to ourselves.

- Drive along Inch Strand for fun and games
- Take a guided cycling tour of Killarney National Park (optional extra: €30)
Duration: 3 hours
Terrain Road and forest path
- Non cycling options:
 - Walk with your guide above Torc Waterfall
 - Explore the magnificent ruins of Muckross Abbey
 - Visit Muckross House (entrance fee €9, €7.50 for senior citizens and students) and gardens and grounds (free) ·
 - Free time in Killarney town
- Head for Iveragh Peninsula via Killorglin (Goat Fair) and Castlemaine (Wild Colonial Boy)
- Join Ring of Kerry scenic route on the Iveragh Peninsula
- Off-road to our secret picnic spot looking back across to the Dingle Peninsula
- Clamber around a stone fort

(Average driving time: 3 hours 30 minutes)

ACCOMMODATION:

Overnight in The Moorings Guesthouse in Portmagee

DAY 10

Portmagee to Kenmare

It's our second day on the Ring of Kerry, as we follow the route around the southern half of the Iveragh Peninsula to Kenmare. Not forgetting the option of a boat trip to the incredible Skellig Islands, which are truly breathtaking - though not for the faint hearted! There are beaches, walks and stunning views across to the Beara Peninsula.

Option 1: Skellig Island Trip:

Depart Portmagee at 9:00, after an hour at sea arrive at the Islands and climb the 600 steps to the ancient monastery. Arrive back at Portmagee at 14:15.

Please note that the boat trip to the Skellig Islands is very weather dependent and also seasonal (open between mid-May and September) The trip to the Islands costs €100.

OR

A two & half hour cruise out to and around Skellig Michael with views up to the ancient monastery. A commentary of the islands, their amazing birdlife and fascinating history is given during the cruise. (cost €40)

Option 2: Non-island Options:

- Walk to Bray Head on Valentia Island
Average Walk Duration: 1 hour 30 minutes
Terrain: Farm track and open boggy hillside
- Visit the Skellig Experience Centre for a taste of life out on the Skellig Islands (entrance fee: €4)
- Visit the Skellig Chocolate Factory for a free tasting!

After leaving Portmagee:

(Please note that if we visit the Skellig Islands today than it affects the activities and itinerary for the rest of the day). The trip takes until about 2.15pm in the afternoon and we then have to drive around the southern half of the Ring of Kerry, so it does mean that activities like walking on the Old Kenmare Road or visiting the sheep farm may not be possible.

- Visit one of the many Celtic ring forts found on the Iveragh Peninsula, including: Staigue Fort or Loher Fort
- Detour down to Derrynane Beach for a game of Gaelic Football or Hurling.
- Tide permitting you can walk across to the ruined church and graveyard on 'Abbey Island'
- See the running of a real Irish sheep farm if not already done
- Leave the Ring of Kerry scenic route on the Iveragh Peninsula
- (Average driving time: 3 hours)

ACCOMMODATION:

Overnight in Coachmans Townhouse Hotel, Kenmare

Vagabond Tours of Ireland - Unit 52 Newtown Business & Enterprise Park, Newtownmountkennedy, Co. Wicklow, Ireland. WEB: www.vagabondtoursofireland.com

DAY 11

Kenmare to Gougane Barra

An action-packed day as we journey out onto the 'undiscovered' Beara Peninsula. It is an amazing coastline, wild, rugged and extremely scenic. While we are here we have the option of some great walks, castles and lunch in one of Ireland's most famous pubs. There is also the option of some free time in the morning in Kenmare.

- Shopping in picturesque Kenmare
- Head out onto Beara Peninsula, the undiscovered Peninsula
- Great views of the Caha Mountains and Sheepshead Peninsula
- Visit the ancient Uragh Stone Circle
- Take the Healy Mountain pass, Ireland's bendiest road with great scenery north and south
- Quick pint (or lunch) at MacCarthy's Bar in Castletownbere
- Special Vagabond shortcut over the mountains and through the old copper mines
- Arrive in the stunningly located village of Allihies
- Walk the Bullig bay loop and see the ancient ruins of Dunboy Castle

Average Walk Duration: 1 hour 30 minutes

Terrain: Mixed trail following sea shore, forestry pathways, open boggy terrain, some public road

- Bantry Bay Seal Spotting in Glengarriff

(Average driving time: 3 hours 30 minutes)

Overnight in Gougane Barra Hotel or the Castle Hotel, Macroom

DAY 12

Gougane Barra to Dublin

Sadly, it's the last day of the adventure and time to head home to Dublin, but first we have some major attractions to see! You can kiss the world-famous Blarney Stone and visit the iconic Rock of Cashel.

- Depart hotel after breakfast before heading east and northeast through Counties Cork, Limerick, Tipperary, Kildare and Dublin
- Follow the River Lee down towards Cork
- Kiss the World Famous Blarney Stone or get away from the crowds and explore the extensive grounds and gardens (Included in tour price)
- Visit the magnificent Rock of Cashel – one of Ireland's greatest historical sites (included in tour price)
- Drive through the Curragh – once used as the Braveheart film set

(Average driving time: 4 hours 30 minutes)

Arrive back in Dublin between 5 and 6pm. Drop off at the Grand Canal Hotel, Dublin 4.

Tour Price: €2,769pps for 2018.
