DAY 10 – KENMARE TO GOUGANE BARRA/MACROOM

A place apart

This morning we head out onto the Beara. This peninsula is truly off the beaten track. Expect rugged roads, superb scenery and livestock-induced traffic jams a-plenty.

One of our favourite pastimes here in Ireland is dancing around ancient stone circles. Luckily, the Beara peninsula has a plethora to choose from. No one truly knows what the circles were used for. So let your imagination run wild!

We'll gaze out over the cloud-wrapped Cahal Mountains with a rugged drive up the Healy Mountain pass, Ireland's bendiest road.

We'll board a boat to Garnish Island and the wonders of its Italian formal gardens (Tour Option - €16 per person). Look out for cheeky seals in and around the harbour area of Glengarriff.

Visit stately Bantry House, one of the few grand Irish homes still in private hands; owned by the same family since the 18th century.

There's one more drive today, a coastal ride that snakes along Bantry Bay before cutting inland.

Random snapshots of beauty appear and disappear - a black stallion behind a stone wall; a mute swan on a misty lake; an elderly farmer outside his brightly painted cottage. We hope you'll understand West Cork's mantra, 'a place apart'.

Accommodation and dinner tonight is at the family-owned Gougane Barra Hotel, or the Castle Hotel in Macroom.

The average driving time today is 3 hours.

DAY 11 – GOUGANE BARRA/MACROOM TO DUBLIN

Time to say slán...

Before we say goodbye, there's still time for some of Ireland's top highlights.

We'll trace the River Lee, passing through scenic countryside filled with charming cottages and typical Irish agriculture.

Then it's time to kiss the famous Blarney Stone. Afterwards, explore the extensive grounds and lush, landscaped gardens of Blarney Castle.

We'll grab lunch either close to Blarney or near our next stop, the monastery at the Rock of Cashel.

A self guided walking tour of the epic Rock of Cashel is a fitting way to end our odyssey. This is one of Ireland's most iconic sights; its story combines elements you'll have noticed everywhere on your tour: a deep and complex history; a stunning natural setting; marvelous architecture; and a heartfelt human aspect.

You'll disembark your Drifter back at the Grand Canal Hotel in Dublin between 5-6pm. Bittersweet hugs all round for your new friends.

The average driving time today is 4 hours and 30 minutes.
