Witness the savage beauty

Your first option today is to take a guided tour of the storied 16th century Aughnanure castle tower, ancestral home to the ferocious O’Flaherty clan.

Then we aim for ‘the city of the tribes’ - Galway; it’s atmospheric, it’s buzzy and it’s full of tasty food options.

Look out for traditional black-hulled Hooker sailing boats as we traverse Galway Bay.

We’ll have a perfect photo opportunity at coastal Dunguaire Castle, just outside the pretty village of Kinvara.

Next is the bewitching beauty of the Burren region, with its limestone lunar landscape, and uniquely rich flora.

Marvel at the Poul nabrone Dolmen, one of Ireland’s great archaeological treasures. It’s older than the pyramids!

DAY 5 – DINGLE TO GLENGARRIFF

Jaunts and jolly japes

Enjoy a scenic drive along the southern coast of the Dingle Peninsula, with a photo stop and perhaps a stroll along the beach at Inch Strand.

You'll pay a visit to the stunning Killarney National Park. Take a horse drawn 'jaunting car' around this magnificent parkland (Tour Option - €15 per person).

After lunch, your Drifter will join the world famous Ring of Kerry scenic route. Prepare to have your socks knocked off! You'll get the chance for at least one mountain top photo stop and even some craft shopping, if time allows.

We'll cross into Cork over the mountainous Cahahane pass and hit vibrant Glengarriff in the early evening.

Your accommodation is at the centrally located Glengarriff Park Hotel tonight.

DAY 6 – GLENGARRIFF TO GOUGANE BARRA/MACROOM

A place apart

This morning we head out onto the Beara. This peninsula is truly off the beaten track. Expect rugged roads, superb scenery and livestock-induced traffic jams a-plenty.

One of our favourite pastimes here in Ireland is dancing around ancient stone circles. Luckily, the Beara peninsula has a plethora to choose from. No one truly knows what the circles were used for. So let your imagination run wild!

We'll gaze out over the cloud-wrapped Cahal mountains with a rugged drive up the Healy Mountain pass, Ireland's bendiest road.

We'll board a boat to Garnish Island and the wonders of its Italian formal gardens (Tour Option - €16 per person). Look out for cheeky seals in and around the harbour area of Glengarriff.

Visit stately Bantry House, one of the few grand Irish homes still in private hands; owned by the same family since the 18th century.

There's one more drive today, a coastal ride that snakes along Bantry Bay before cutting inland.

Random snapshots of beauty appear and disappear - a black stallion behind a stone wall; a mute swan on a misty lake; an elderly farmer outside his brightly painted cottage. We hope you'll understand West Cork's mantra, 'a place apart'.

Accommodation and dinner tonight is at the family-owned Gougane Barra Hotel, or the Castle Hotel in Macroom.

The average driving time today is 3 hours.

DAY 7 – GOUGANE BARRA/MACROOM TO DUBLIN

Time to say slán...

Before we say goodbye, there's still time for some of Ireland's top highlights.

We'll trace the River Lee, passing through scenic countryside filled with charming cottages and typical Irish agriculture.

Then it's time to kiss the famous Blarney Stone. Afterwards, explore the extensive grounds and lush, landscaped gardens of Blarney Castle.

We'll grab lunch either close to Blarney or near our next stop, the monastery at the Rock of Cashel.

A self guided walking tour of the epic Rock of Cashel is a fitting way to end our odyssey. This is one of Ireland's most iconic sights; its story combines elements you'll have noticed everywhere on your tour: a deep and complex history; a stunning natural setting; marvelous architecture; and a heartfelt human aspect.

You'll disembark your Drifter back at the Grand Canal Hotel in Dublin between 5-6pm. Bittersweet hugs all round for your new friends.

The average driving time today is 4 hours and 30 minutes.
