DAY 1 – DUBLIN TO CONNEMARA

Your adventure awaits

Meet your guide and fellow Vagabonds at reception of the Grand Canal Hotel, Dublin at 8.30am. Board your 4x4 Vagatron and hit the road!

Head west, through counties Meath, Westmeath, Longford, Roscommon, Longford and Mayo, crossing the River Shannon into Connacht.

Then we aim for 'the city of the tribes' - Galway; it's atmospheric, it's buzzy and it's full of tasty food options.

Enter the savage beauty of Connemara, a region famous for its misty mountains, wild moorlands and dark lakes.

On the mountainous shores of Killary fjord you'll experience a hands-on visit to Tom Nee's sheep farm including a sheepdog demonstration.

We might catch some phenomenal views over Connemara from the summit of Diamond Hill (442 m / 1,450 ft); or experience the Maumeen pilgrim trail, an ancient meeting spot for Celtic harvest celebrations that became in later centuries a shrine to Ireland's patron saint, Patrick.

There's a quick photo stop at Kylemore Abbey – one of Ireland's most scenic historic buildings.

You'll feel like royalty with a sumptuous dinner and atmospheric overnight stay at Abbeyglen Castle Hotel, deep in Connemara.

The average driving time today is 5 hours.

DAY 2 – CONNEMARA TO CLARE

Into the heart of the west

The first option today is to take a guided tour of the storied 16th century Aughnanure castle tower, ancestral home to the ferocious O’Flaherty clan.

Then we aim for ‘the city of the tribes’ - Galway; it’s atmospheric, it’s buzzy and it’s full of tasty food options.

Look out for traditional black-hulled Hooker sailing boats as we circumnavigate Galway Bay.

We’ll have a perfect photo opportunity at coastal Dunguaire Castle, just outside the pretty village of Kinvara.

Next is the bewitching beauty of the Burren region, with its limestone lunar landscape, and uniquely rich flora.

Marvel at the Poul nabrone Dolmen, one of Ireland’s great archaeological treasures. It’s older than the pyramids!

Hold onto your hat! It’s the world famous Cliffs of Moher. Of course we’re doing things the Vagabond way, arriving with an awe-inspiring, coast-hugging hike.

Accommodation tonight is at Spanish Point House. This family-owned boutique period guesthouse offers stunning coastal views. It’s a short ramble across the road for dinner at the Armada Hotel.

The average driving time today is 4 hours.

DAY 3 – CLARE TO KERRY

Through the gates of the kingdom

We start today with yet more beautiful coastal views, descending southward from Spanish Point towards 'The Kingdom' of Kerry.

Watch out for dolphins as we take a ferry across the mighty mouth of the Shannon - the longest river in Ireland or Britain.

Your guide will select a lunch stop along the route - or maybe even a picnic.

Surf's up! Ride the breakers at Castlegregory this afternoon. Take a surf lesson (Tour Option - €40 per person). Or simply absorb the serenity at one of Ireland's most gorgeous beaches.

Another option is a hike up the glaciated valley of Annascaul. Mingle with 'sheepish' locals as the Annascaul river tumbles to the lake below. Prepare for a steep hike of 1 hour 30 minutes with rough, loose terrain and climbs in places.

Refresh yourself with an ice cold pint at the South Pole Inn. Hear the extraordinary tale of endurance suffered by its one time Antarctic explorer landlord, Tom Crean.

Dingle awaits... Revel in a wealth of dinner and entertainment options, with plenty of free time to explore this bustling little town. There's a pub for every 40 residents!

Your accommodation tonight and tomorrow will be at either the Dingle Skellig or Dingle Bay hotels.

The average driving time today is 3 hours 30 minutes

Max adventure, minimum driving

Get ready! You're about to experience some of the most beautiful sights in Ireland. Rugged beauty and knife edge drops are guaranteed on the route around Sleah Head, Europe's westernmost point.

The afternoon is yours to design. Relax and soak up Dingle's charms, with the option for some quality down time. Or take on the many activities on offer.

Whatever you do in Dingle, don't miss an Irish traditional music session or a stroll around the town's plentiful art galleries and craft shops.

Your guide can organise one of the following:

- » Horse ride along a beach or up a mountain (Tour Option - €35 per person);
- » Flip out with local celebrity, Fungie the Dolphin, on a boat trip (Tour Option - €15-20 per person) or sea kayak (Tour Option - €50 per person);

DAY 5 – DINGLE TO PORTMAGEE

On your bike!

It's a swift morning start for a guided cycling tour of Killarney National Park (Tour Option - €30 per person):

- » Admire the striking sandstone facade and charming history of 19th century Muckross House;
- » Wonder at Muckross Abbey and the centuries-old yew tree growing within its 15th century cloisters;
- » Gaze out over idyllic Lough Leane, dotted with tiny islands;
- » Bump into the local herd of rare native red deer, if you're lucky (they can be shy!).

You will be cycling on a mixture of paved road and forest paths for approximately 3 hours, requiring good fitness levels and at least average cycling ability

Even if biking isn't your thing, you're free to roam this magnificent parkland. Hike to the multi-tiered Torc Waterfall. Or, if there are no cyclists on your tour, you'll have the option to visit glorious Inch Beach or take a windswept peek at Ireland's highest road - The Connor Pass.

Your guide will select a lunch stop along the route.

You'll join the Ring of Kerry next. Vaga-tip: give your camera a break here and just let mile upon mile of outstanding scenery wash over you.

Your well-earned rest and dinner tonight is in the comfort of The Moorings Guesthouse in Portmagee.

If it's a clear night, look up! Kerry's night sky is a certified International Dark Sky Reserve and offers crystal clear views of the Milky Way.

DAY 6 – PORTMAGEE TO KENMARE

Island adventures

Today is a day of options. If you have your sea legs, and the weather behaves, then it's all about the Skelligs – Ireland's unique island treasures.

Enjoy a cruise around Skellig Michael and Little Skellig (Tour Option - €40 per person). Hear commentary on ancient monastic history. See amazing seabird colonies up close. Imagine the Millennium Falcon swooping overhead - after all, this was Luke Skywalker's retreat in Star Wars. The open ocean boat trip to the Skellig Islands is seasonal (April to October), lasts approximately 2 hours 30 minutes and can be rough.

If the Skelligs cruise isn't your thing, then your VagaGuide will lead a hike to a headland with stunning, panoramic sea views. Afterward, choose from the delights of Valentia Island: visit the Skellig Experience Centre; witness 385 million year old tetrapod tracks; we might even force you to taste some chocolate, right where it's made in the countryside!

This afternoon, you'll have the option to visit the home of Daniel O'Connell, revered in Irish history as 'The Liberator'. A short ramble reveals the golden sands of Derrynane beach. Feeling brave? This is the perfect opportunity to refresh yourself with a quick dip in the Atlantic ocean!

We hit lively Kenmare in the early evening. Catch authentic traditional Irish music and outstanding local food in the town's many pubs and restaurants.

Your accommodation is at the comfortable Coachmans Townhouse in the centre of town.

The average driving time today is 2 hours.

DAY 7 – KENMARE TO WEST CORK

Strictly backroads today!

This morning, we head out onto the Beara. This peninsula is truly off the beaten track. Expect rugged roads, superb scenery and livestock-induced traffic jams a-plenty.

One of our favourite pastimes here in Ireland is dancing around ancient stone circles. Luckily, the Beara peninsula has a plethora to choose from. No one truly knows what the circles were used for. So let your imagination run wild!

We'll gaze out over the cloud-wrapped Cahahalee mountains with a rugged drive up the Healy Mountain pass, Ireland's bendiest road.

Your guide will recommend the best spot for lunch. It could be a scenic coastal picnic at Bullig Bay or a delicious pub grub in cosy Castletownbere.

We'll dive deeper into the undiscovered Beara. We'll either put the Vagatron's all-road abilities through its paces with a drive over the abandoned copper mines, or hike to a top secret Vagabond spot by the ocean.

There's one more drive today, a coastal ride that snakes along Bantry Bay before cutting inland.

Random snapshots of beauty appear and disappear - a black stallion behind a stone wall; a mute swan on a misty lake; an elderly farmer outside his brightly painted cottage. We hope you'll understand West Cork's mantra, 'a place apart'.

Accommodation and dinner tonight is at the family-owned Gougane Barra Hotel, or Seaview House Hotel in Bantry.

The average driving time today is 3 hours 30 minutes.

DAY 8 – WEST CORK TO DUBLIN

Time to say slán...

Before we say goodbye, there's still time for some of Ireland's highlights.

We'll trace the River Lee, passing through scenic countryside filled with charming cottages and typical Irish agriculture.

Then it's time to kiss the famous Blarney Stone. Afterwards, explore the extensive grounds and lush, landscaped gardens of Blarney Castle.

We'll grab lunch either close to Blarney or near our next stop, the monastery at the Rock of Cashel.

A self guided walking tour of the epic Rock of Cashel is a fitting way to end our odyssey. This is one of Ireland's most iconic sights; its story combines elements you'll have noticed everywhere on your tour: a deep and complex history; a stunning natural setting; marvelous architecture; and a heartfelt human aspect.

You'll disembark your Vagatron back at the Grand Canal Hotel in Dublin between 5-6pm. Farewell hugs all round for your new friends.

The average driving time today is 4 hours and 30 minutes.
